

SCS SB 351 -- ORGAN DONATION

Currently, a parent or guardian's consent must be noted on one or the other of several documents, including the donor's application for an instruction permit or driver's license. The bill revises this latter document to be the donor's permit or license, where notation of parental consent is made as attorney-in-fact.